

FRANCE CLAIMS
A VINDICATION.Foch Policy on Rhine Upheld
by Recent Events.Believe President Wilson's Criticism Answered.Position of American Troops on Rhine is Complex.

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
PARIS, March 15.—It is impossible to exaggerate the feeling of alarm, uncertainty and resentment against Great Britain and the United States for their failure to accept the French viewpoint in recent months which, today, runs through all France.

"Where is French militarism now?" is the question thrown at Americans in Paris. It is as if fate had played with Wilson again, and on the eve of his charge against France had furnished striking evidence in substantiation of Foch and his party, against whom the President's charge was directed.

CONDITION COMPLEX.
Believing that events that have occurred thus far are merely the prelude for graver ones, the Allies, all eyes are turned toward the United States in uncertainty as to what attitude it will assume with the German treaty unratified, but its troops still on the Rhine. Will it order the troops to withdraw forward as part of an Allied demonstration should Marshal Foch consider this necessary?

Indications here following yesterday's meeting of the council of ambassadors, which has charge of the execution of the treaty, point to these as the features of the Allied policy for the present:

First, taking steps to safeguard the Allied mission in Germany, and to regard any invasion of their liberty or assault upon their persons as just provocation of actual military measures.

INTERNAL DISTURBANCE.
Second, to hold that any change in government is considered a question of internal German politics in regard to which, with the treaty ratified by the German people, the Allies do not propose to interfere unless it should mean the return to power of the Hohenzollerns or any others whose punishment is demanded.

Third, to insist upon the execution of the treaty by those who seem to be the old government or the new, pending action by the National Assembly, which would reveal the real desire of the German people.

KILLING AND RIOTING
IN WAKE OF REVOLTS.THIRTY DEAD AT HAMBURG, FIFTEEN AT BERLIN, TEN
MORE AT STUTTGART.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
COPENHAGEN, March 15.—Thirty persons were killed, including some women and children, in yesterday's fighting in Hamburg between citizens, guards and Baltic troops, according to that city state.

Among the killed was Capt. Berthold, commanding the Baltic ships. The Hamburg advisers report the resignation last night of Baron von Wangemann, the senior garrison officer there. Herr Lampier, a supporter of the Ebert government, succeeded him.

BERLIN, March 15.—Fifteen persons are reported to have been killed and many wounded in fighting yesterday at Stettin, in the southwest outskirts of Berlin.

At Charlottenburg, a western suburb of Berlin, four persons are said to have been killed and six wounded as a result of collisions.

AMSTERDAM, March 15.—During fighting in Stettin, southwest of Berlin, between troops and civilians, ten persons were killed and many wounded, says the Berlin correspondent of the Telegram.

Several persons are reported to have been killed or wounded at Breslau, the correspondent adds.

BERLIN, March 15.—Furor occurred again yesterday afternoon in various parts of Leipzig, especially near the general postoffice and a number of persons were killed or wounded, a dispatch from Leipzig says. The middle of the town has been entirely cordoned off by troops.

LONDON, March 15.—During a demonstration at Leipzig yesterday, troops fired on a crowd, killing more than twenty persons and wounding about sixty, says the Copenhagen correspondent of the Central News.

Reports received in Copenhagen, the correspondent adds, state that fighting continues in many parts of Germany.

The workmen are reported to have proclaimed a "council republic" at Essen and in the Ruhr district.

The civil and military authorities at Cassel and Oldenburg are said to be supporting the Ebert government.

MODERN TREASURE
SEEKING RESULTFUL.

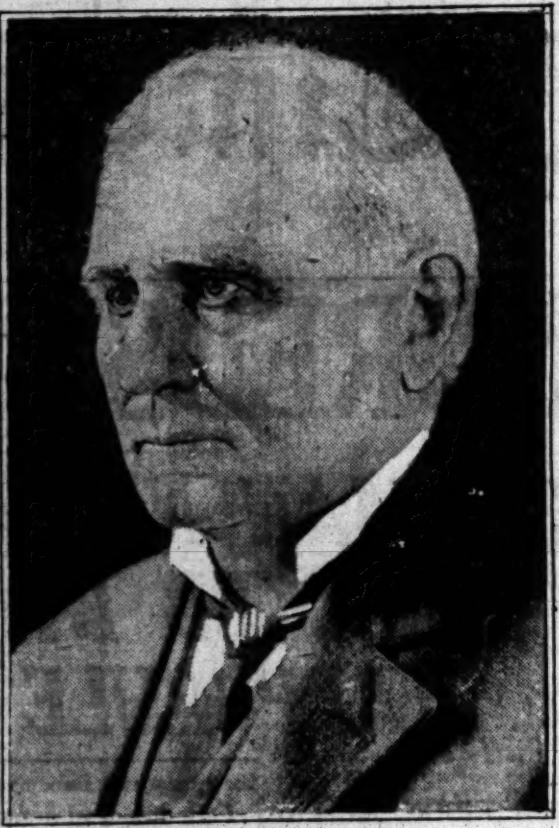

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, March 15.—Sunken treasure worth $50,000,000 has been raised since the war began around the British Isles.

The Restorer and the Reliant, two diving vessels that were bought by a British concern from the American navy, have a new device, an oxy-acetylene flame which is worked under water for cutting holes in the sides of submerged vessels.

Each ship has twenty-five electric pumps capable of pumping 1,000,000 gallons of water an hour and carries two divers, searchlights, line-throwing guns, electric welding plants, rock drills and other accessories. Each diver is equipped with a telephone.

Rather be Representative than Senator.

Champ Clark of Missouri.
A new and hitherto unpublished portrait.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Representative Champ Clark of Missouri formally announced today that he would not be a candidate for the Senate because of his unwillingness to swap the Democratic leadership in the House for the position of new Senator.

The former Speaker declared in a statement "to the people of Missouri" that between the two offices he felt he could render better service by remaining in the House, adding:

"I have concluded not to be a candidate for the Senate, thereby swapping off the Democratic leadership in the House for the position of a new Senator. There is a House habit with which I am thoroughly acquainted and a Senate habit with which I am not familiar. Retire the two I prefer the House."

LEUTWITZ FOR WAR,
SAYS PREMIER BAUER.

REVOLUTIONARY GENERAL OF ARMIES QUOTED AS READY FOR HOSTILITIES.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
GENEVA, March 15.—One of the conditions proposed to the Ebert Cabinet by Gen. Von Luttwitz was that demobilization of the army of the empire as provided by the Versailles treaty must not be executed and war materials not destroyed, according to Premier Bauer of the old government, says a Stuttgart dispatch to the Neue Zürcher Zeitung.

Premier Bauer also quoted Gen. Von Luttwitz as saying that the empire instead should prepare for a new war. The Premier added:

"After such a condition, what aims Kapp and his accomplices are pursuing can be judged."

It seems probable that the proposals by Gen. Von Luttwitz are aligned to by Premier Bauer were made before the Ebert government left Berlin. Gen. Von Luttwitz was dismissed from his command of the first Reichswehr brigade by Minister of Defense Noske last Friday after his connection with what was then termed a reactionary monarchist plot had been discovered.

Negotiations took place between the representatives of the revolting troops and the Ebert government Friday night, the government finally the troops agreed to halt their opposition movement. After this President Ebert and his ministers left Berlin and the troops entered the city.

SERIOUS DEMONSTRATIONS IN ELBERFELD, BOCHUM, DORTMUND, LEIPSIG.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
THE HAGUE, March 15.—The Handelsblad's Berlin correspondent sums up conditions in various towns of Germany as follows:

"Quiet prevails in Coburg and the entire Southern Germany. Halle and also East Prussia are quiet, but in favor of the new government. In many interior towns there is a general strike, among them Munich and Hamburg. At Hamburg, however, the gas, water and electrical services are in operation."

"Serious demonstrations by the Socialists, Independents and Communists have occurred in the towns of Elberfeld, Bochum and Leipzig. In street fighting at Dortmund, seven persons were killed and several wounded. A strike is threatened in Wurttemberg. The new government has arrested the Socialist President Adler and the newspapers are under a censorship."

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
SPOKANE, March 15.—Condemnation of the Kansas industrial law and depreciation of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen was phases of an address by William Short, president of the Washington State Federation of Labor, at the convention of the International Timber Workers of America, which opened here today. Timber workers from California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho are attending the convention.

Longshoremen Strike Spreading.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The longshoremen's strike, called here Saturday against coastwise shipping interests, spread late today to the Colonial line, operating boats between California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho are attending the convention.

Three hundred men employed on Colonial docks here walked out to enforce demands for more pay and adjustment of working conditions.

BANKERS TAKE REVOLT CALMLYGerman Disturbance Affects Exchange Very Little.Decline of Mark in Common with Pounds and Lire.Financial Circles not Partisan in Controversy.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, March 15.—Wall street was not surprised at the news of the latest German revolution. Many had long looked forward to an outbreak and international bankers long ago warned that March, April and May would be the most critical months for the Ebert government, because at this season of the year, the larder begins to become bare.

Foreign exchange bankers declared that there was no unusually large amount of selling of marks as a result of the political developments.

FOLLOWS EXCHANGE.
The mark which had risen to 1.60 cents last week, began to decline as early as Thursday, in common with pounds, francs and lire.

Cables were quoted at 1.25 cents to the mark on Saturday and 1.12 cents at the close of the day. In London the mark was stronger at the end of the day than at the beginning.

International bankers, contending that the news from Germany was still too vague to comment on, expressed the hope that any new government that might be formed would not swing unduly to the right—to reaction—because, they argued, such a government might pave the way for an exceedingly radical government of the Spartacist type.

The merit of the Ebert government, they said, was that though it changed the government of Germany at the top, it did not, like the Bolsheviks of Russia, interfere with the routine of government through the civil service department.

EBERT INCOMPETENT.
Some bankers, however, view the view that Germany was drifting to economic chaos under the Ebert regime, and thought that the revolution might bring about a middle class government into being which would be more business-like and efficient than the present one.

It was generally agreed that a general strike in Germany at the present time of underemployment of life's necessities might have the most direct effect on the nation's welfare.

LISBON CONTRADICTS
RUMORS OF RIOTING.

CITY IS QUIET IS REPORT, AND HAS NOT BEEN DISTURBED
BY STRIKES.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LISBON, March 15.—Peace reigns in this city, nor has the quiet that prevails been disturbed for a long time.

Reports relative to a serious stay of affairs here which have been current in the outside world for the last fortnight had their origin in rumors which would not be contradicted because of the postal and telegraph service employees which cut off communication with other countries.

Strikes are common throughout Portugal and affect large numbers of the population, but the strike has hitherto been confined to a silent protest against the enormous rise in the cost of living.

Inquiry into quarters thoroughly informed brought a general response that the working people are not infected with Bolshevik tendencies and claim only so much as will permit them to live reasonably well.

Financial conditions, however, militate against any radical betterment in the situation at present.

COMPANY ANNOUNCES
INCREASE IN "CRUDE."

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
CANTON (Wyo.) March 15.—The Ohio Oil Company, the widest Refining Company, two of the largest purchasers of Wyoming crude oil, today announced a general increase of 25 cents a barrel for the various grades of crude oil.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—Advance of 2 cents a gallon in the selling price of gasoline and 25 cents a barrel in those of fuel oil and all grades of crude oils were announced by the Standard Oil Company of California here today. The new prices become effective tomorrow.

Explaining the increase, C. R. Kingsbury, president of the company, said gasoline was moving from California to the East in response to higher markets there and that the Pacific Coast shortage would become acute unless eastern and western prices were more nearly equalized. Gasoline has been selling here for 19 1/2 cents a gallon as against 23 1/2 cents in New York, he said.

CLAIM HINDUS ARE NOT ASIATIC RACE.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SACRAMENTO, March 15.—Natives of British India who are now residents of California held a meeting here today at which steps were taken to protect their rights in the State against attacks of anti-Asiatic organizations that claim they have not the right to hold land under the State constitution.

Those who spoke at the meeting declared the Hindus are members of the Aryan race and have been universally accepted as such. Therefore, they contend, the Hindus cannot be classed as Asiatics under the terms of the California law.

Opposed to the action taken by the Hindus, Senator J. M. Imman, president of the California Oriental Exclusion League, announced today that Atty.-Gen. Webb is making an examination of the transcript of testimony taken before the Sacramento county grand jury relative to the purchase of land in Orangevale by Hindus with a view to bringing court action to test their right to buy property in the State.

DEMAND HEARD FOR PASSENGER SHIPS.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
NEW YORK, March 15.—A demand for more passenger ships between South America and the United States is heard from coast to coast in the former country, according to A. E. Clegg, president of the American Ship and Commerce Navigation Company, who recently returned from a business trip there.

At the present time, he said, for every passenger ship leaving South America for this country there are a dozen sailing for European ports.

Freight service, he added, is more evenly divided and steamers between the two Americas are keeping up very well with the present demands of trade.

WILL NOT RESTORE MONARCHY
IN GERMANY; TREATY TO BE FULFILLED, KAPP PROMISES.

BY CYRIL BROWN.

[BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BERLIN, March 15.—Dr. Kapp, the new Chancellor, a heavy-set, agrarian, whose fleshy face has been secured in student duels, disclaimed unequivocally to me today any intention of attempting to restore the monarchy. Behaving as if he was quite at home in the conference room of the recent Bauer Cabinet, Chancellor Kapp said:

"The new government's attitude toward the peace treaty is the burning point, naturally. The idea seems to have gained ground that the provisions of the peace treaty should be carried out. The new government recognizes and assumes the old government's pledges and will try to fulfill the peace treaty in so far as it does not mean the annihilation of Germany. We hope that our former enemies will recognize this our standpoint."

WANTS ORDER RESTORED.
"The new government will make no attempt to restore the monarchy," Chancellor Kapp underlined. "We are totally free from monarchist tendencies. We are the tools of reaction. In our hearts we want merely to fulfill our patriotic duties to restore order by establishing a strong government in the place of an irresponsible government which was rife with corruption. We want to restore the authority of the state. We want reconstruction so as to fulfill the terms of the peace treaty. This is not a military dictatorship, but a civil dictatorship. The civil dictator is the Chancellor. The Chancellor has appointed a commander-in-chief. When order is restored the commander will be returned to his old place. We shall return to constitutional conditions by the best means, namely, by holding a new election as soon as order is restored."

SPURNS TITLE.
When I addressed him tentatively by the courtesy title of your excellency, Dr. Kapp demurred, and said: "The government, although placing itself in power, cannot confer titles on itself. We attach no value to titles."

Answering a pointed question, Dr. Kapp replied: "There will be no change in attitude toward the question concerning the so-called war criminals. The so-called Lex Lepsius, which provides for the trial of the alleged war criminals by the Supreme Court at Leipzig, will be accepted by the new government—at least for the present."

"Will all the laws passed by the National Assembly be acknowledged and respected by the new government?"

"Many of these laws are contrary to our principles," the Chancellor replied. "Such as the laws that control the whole system of economics, the Erzhberger finance measures, and so on."

"Will the new government stand squarely on a democratic basis?" I asked.

"We recognize the republican state," Dr. Kapp answered. "The national colors will be black, white and red, the old flag. But we have not thought of monarchy."

When I asked if the new government would negotiate with the Soviet Russia, Dr. Kapp hedged about discussing diplomatic possibilities, but said, finally: "We want, first and foremost, to come to a good understanding with the western powers and the United States."

"What will the new government do?"

"We will do what we can to restore order and to fulfill our patriotic duties to the German people."

the delegation will accept an order

DRESDEN DEAD FIFTY-NINE
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, March 16.—Central News Berlia dispatch says that the Kapp troops, after severe fighting, dislodged the workmen's guard from the telegraph office in Dresden. The dispatch adds that fifty-nine persons were killed and more than 200 wounded.

MUNICH, March 16.—The Diet

ceive the resignation of the government. President Schmidt read the following declaration from the commander-in-chief:
"The superior command gives the fullest guarantee that the overthrow of the Diet is planned neither for today nor for a later date by any part whatsoever of the garrison of Munich."

LONDON, March 16.—The boatmen and dockers on the Rhine have struck in protest against the coup of the Kapp government, says a dispatch to the London Times from Antwerp.
The Imperial Finance Ministry today refused to turn over 10,000,000 marks for current expenditure in the payment of the troops, as demanded by Chancellor Kapp. President Ebert has notified all financial departments that the honoring of Kapp's demands for money will be regarded as treason. Deputy Finance Minister Moser has left Berlin.

BERLIN, March 15.—Reliable information indicates that the Kapp government is beginning to find its tenure of office very insecure. It is confirmed negotiations are proceeding between the Kapp and Ebert governments. It is said the new government officials seem mainly concerned about the prospects of anarchy.

11 a.m. today:
"A general strike is on, including the public utilities. There are no street cars, no lights and no water.
There have been no disorders. There seems to be no change in the situation."

BERLIN PARALYZED.
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
BERLIN, March 16.—The world capital probably ever before experienced such a complete paralysis of all its living and commercial facilities as Berlin did today. The Hotel Adlon made heroic efforts to provide food for the American, British and French missions and newspaper correspondents, but it gave up the task at 10 o'clock this morning.
When the last of the kitchen force walked out, leaving food here and there for themselves. It was a common spectacle subsequently to see cock-coated diplomats returning to the hotel from foraging expeditions carrying brown paper parcels, foodstuffs, oil stoves and other necessaries.

LOS ANGELES IS IGNORED.
Not a Cent Recommended for Submarine Base by House Naval Committee.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, March 16.—Los Angeles gets not even one red cent for the submarine base at its harbor. When the Naval Committee of the House reports the naval appropriations bill tomorrow Los Angeles will be completely ignored and all the recommendations of naval experts, backed up in the strongest possible manner by Secretary of the Navy Daniels himself, will be utterly disregarded. In spite of the fact that Los Angeles has complied with all the wishes, suggestions and recommendations of the Navy Department regarding a free site, and despite the absolute necessity for a submarine base at Los Angeles provided in the Heim report, confirmed by a special board which made an inspection during the year, Los Angeles is not even mentioned in the appropriation bill.
Only one other port on the Pacific was so poor as to be utterly ignored and that was Port Angeles, Wash.
Apparently members of the House Naval Committee gave no heed to the confidential recommendations of the Secretary of the Navy after his personal inspection of Los Angeles Harbor.

In striking contrast was the expenditure of money at San Diego,
the home of Congressman Kettner, who also happens to be a Democrat and a member of the House Naval Committee—the only one from California. San Diego gets a total of $2,500,000. These figures do not tell the whole story, for it means practically all of the activities of the navy on the Southern Pacific Coast are to be concentrated at San Diego. These appropriations today are but the forerunners of many millions more for the development of San Diego.

Of this tremendous appropriation $1,150,000 is for a naval fuel station and the development of the marine railway. This means that practically all of the fuel oil for the use of the navy will be concentrated at San Diego. So far as Los Angeles is filled the bath tubs and washstands, but defective stoppers gradually let out the water and the guests thereafter had to rely on wines and table water. Men who are usually shaved, by March 16, are in an apologetic mood tonight and if the strike continues the male population will soon be bearded.

The city tonight had the appearance of another Sunday holiday, sauntering crowds filling Unter Linden. At intervals troops with bands and accompanied by artillery and machine guns paraded.
The political aspects of the situation are as yet extremely mixed. In some quarters the opinion is expressed that Chancellor Kapp will be satisfied if he succeeds in definitely disposing of the former regime; that his coup was merely a means to an end. He had announced that no plans for the formation of a Cabinet have been made.

The sitting of the Baden Landtag today developed into an impressive demonstration in favor of the Ebert government, according to messages from that State.
Chancellor Kapp today ordered the release of Herr Bauer, Cabinet Minister, and other individuals who had been taken into custody. Prince Joachim Albrecht of Prussia, who was implicated in the anti-French demonstration at the Hotel Adlon and Dr. Levy, the Communist leader.

The embargo on the Berlin press was lifted today and the editors warned that their journals would be suppressed if they were found guilty of malicious criticism of the new government. The strike, however, tied up the big newspaper plants.
A number of persons were arrested today and a copy of all government leaflets and Communist pamphlets urging a general strike
and a world revolution.
The strike spread rapidly today and threatened to extend to the clerical forces. Not a wheel was turning in the city and a copy of all government leaflets and Communist
pamphlets urging a general strike
and a world revolution.

DUTCH STRENGTHEN GUARD.
(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
THE HAGUE, March 16.—The Dutch government has slightly strengthened the guard at the German frontier. A particularly close guard is being kept at the border between the Netherlands and Germany. Passengers arriving on the frontier at Oldenzaal and Zevenaar report traffic well guarded. The border is being guarded by Dutch laborers who were employed in Germany near the frontier have been sent home on account of the general strike.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, March 16.—A joint manifesto which will be signed by Premier Lloyd George and Andrew Bonar Law will be issued in a few days stating the principles of a new party to be led by the Premier, says the Daily Mail. It will be accepted by the House of Commons.
Important reconstruction of the ministry, and for this reason announcement of appointments to the portfolio of Food and Board of Trade, now vacant, has been postponed.

According to present intentions, the name of the new party will be the "National Democratic." Unionists have been adherents of Premier Lloyd George are said to have decided to support him, but there are indications that the party will not be united in its adherence to the new combination. A revolt under the leadership of the Marquis of Salisbury and Lord Cecil is expected, says the Daily Mail.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
ST. PAUL (Minn.) March 16.—
Republicans today admitted that the county conventions to be held tomorrow in St. Paul and Minneapolis, will practically determine whether the Minnesota delegation of twenty-four delegates to the national convention will be solid for the nomination of Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood.

There are ten congressional districts in Minnesota. Each district will elect a delegate to the national convention and the State convention selects four delegates at large. The county conventions will be held tomorrow, the district conventions will be on Friday and the State convention will be held in the St. Paul Auditorium on Saturday.

WOOD GETS COUNTRY.
In the seven districts outside of St. Paul and Minneapolis the Wood forces scored a conceded victory at the preferential primary yesterday. In the Fifth and Tenth districts, which include Hennepin county (Minneapolis), supporters of Senator Hiram Johnson of California claim control. In the Fourth district, Ramsey county (St. Paul), the dispute regarding control will be decided at the county convention tomorrow. Wood managers admitted tonight that Johnson received the endorsement in a majority of the precincts, but the Wood men claim to have carried the precincts sending the largest number of delegates to the county convention.

"Popular" figures from the State at large have been generally ignored by political leaders. Each county committee was depended upon to provide ballots and many incidents of confusion were reported.
In some polling places the name of Senator Johnson was placed on the ballot, while in other precincts the name of Gov. Lowden of Illinois was omitted. In a half dozen counties, where supporters of Herbert Hoover were active, stickers were provided to attach Hoover's name.
As a consequence, managers of the Lowden and Johnson campaigns tonight made claims only for the Ramsey county delegation. There were reports that efforts were being made to combine the two counties, if it were possible to wrest control of the county conventions from the Wood men.

UNION LABOR FOR JOHNSON.
The Presidential preference primary was the first held in Minnesota. In a number of small precincts of St. Paul, where the union labor vote was heavy, Johnson was indorsed, whereas Wood carried the two large precincts. Johnson gave him about 200 delegates to the convention. It is necessary to have 254 delegates to control the Ramsey county convention.

Johnson received the union labor vote in the Twin Cities and obtained a popular vote plurality in Minneapolis.
On the face of erratic State-wide returns the popular vote went to Wood, Johnson second and Hoover and Lowden third and fourth, respectively. At least eighty counties out of the eighty-six went to Wood. Lowden leaders charged that their campaign was injured by Hoover stickers and by the absence of the Lowden ballots in a number of precincts.

NORTH DAKOTA VOTES.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BISMARCK (N. D.) March 16.—Indications early tonight were that a fair vote had been cast in the cities in North Dakota's Presidential preference primary election, but a marked decrease in the rural sections was expected as a result of the terrible blizzard that has raged in the State since last night. The polls were open until 9 p.m.

Little interest attached to the Presidential preference vote as there was but one candidate in the field, Senator Johnson, Republican, of California.

WE WERE LUCKY AT SEA—SIMS.

Little German Bluff Would Have Cut Europe Off.

Washington Flurried when He Told of Preparations.

Capital Insisted on Impracticable Defense Plans.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE)

WASHINGTON, March 16.—A bluff on the part of the German in 1918 at the crucial point of the war would have paralyzed transportation of soldiers and war materials between this country and Europe. Rear-Admiral Sims today told the Senate Naval Subcommittee.

Information from authentic sources, indicating that the Germans were building two heavily-armored modern battle cruisers for a desperate last hope against troopship convoys was transmitted to the Navy Department. Admiral Sims said, and immediately he was besieged with cablegrams from Washington outlining various plans of action, all of which, he testified, were impracticable, although such a contingency had been under discussion for nearly a year and there had been ample time to prepare.

FOUR PLANS.

Admiral Sims discussed at length four plans proposed by the department for defeating Germany on the sea. They were: A protected lane through the danger zone; the blocking of German ports by sinking ships in the entrance; mine barriers of nets and mines of types then in use; mine barriers of mines of a new type. All except the last were impracticable, he declared, and much time was wasted by the insistence of the department that they be tried.

On May 11, 1917, the Navy Department first suggested the idea of a barrage of mines across the North Sea to trap the German sea forces. Admiral Sims said, and at that time he opposed the plan because the Allies could not afford to divert the men, ships and material necessary to make the project a success.

Later he approved the idea, he said, and helped to expedite the laying of the barrage. The result of the North Sea mine barrage was a magnificent achievement, the admiral said, reflecting great credit on the navy and the officers and men who were responsible for the success of the project.

EXPLAINS MINE CHARGE.

Admiral Sims said he particularly wished to refute an assertion "widely circulated" that the department had proposed and from the first favored the mine barrage project and that he was "about the only officer in the navy who had ever opposed it."

The Navy Department at the time the United States entered the war, Admiral Sims said, was not "very much better informed than the general public of actual conditions in the belligerent countries, and had but little trustworthy information regarding matters concerning which complete knowledge was essential to the development of effective plans for combating the submarine menace."

Even after he arrived in England and had access to the information he could not place it at the disposal of the department immediately, he added, because of the smallness of his staff.

Approaching a Man's Heart

As the way to a man's heart is through his stomach it is pertinent to note that an adult male takes five and a half pounds of food and drink daily, or one ton a year. Thus the men alone in the million Delineator families consume yearly a million tons of food and drink. Massacres in Cilicia Change Original Plans.

More Outrages Reported Northwest of Marash.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

PARIS, March 16.—The United States government, according to the Temps today, has been sounded as to its views of the settlement under consideration for the solution of the Turkish problem. The government has not yet replied, adds the paper, but Acting Secretary of State Polk expressed his personal opinion on various points of the proposed adjustment.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Announcement from Paris today that the tentative agreement in connection with settlement of the Turkish question had been communicated to the United States brought no official comment here as to the attitude of the American government toward the proposals. The plan includes recognition of an independent army and retention of the Straits in Constantinople as drawn up, but it was suggested that the recent events might necessitate modifications and also that Russia would be included in the final settlement.

SITUATION CHANGED.

The tentative plan was drawn up by the conference of ambassadors before the disorders in Cilicia and Anatolia precipitated a change in the Turkish situation. How far these incidents might serve to change the attitude of the Allies, it was said, was a matter of conjecture, but it was stated that certain details of the tentative arrangement would be subject to change.

The plan by which the Sultan would remain in Constantinople did not involve originally the employment of military forces there, an international high commission being proposed for the double purpose of exercising a military control over the straits and of keeping a watchful eye upon the Sultan. Nor did it fix Armenian boundaries.

Since the French reverses in Cilicia, it was said, there has been a change of troops "of some sort" in Constantinople and the Turkish government, it is understood, has been threatened with reprisals. These events probably have changed the aspect of the problem which the Allies faced when the tentative agreement was composed, it was pointed out.

MORE MASSACRES.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

ADANA (Asia Minor) March 16 (Delayed).—Armenians here have closed their shops and informed the French that they will send armed Armenians to the relief of Hadjin, northwest of Marash, where the Turks are reported to be terrorizing the populace, if the French do not dispatch troops there.

The villages of Romlou and Yerebazar have been overrun and Armenian inhabitants have fled to Hadjin. Both the French and the Turks say the Armenians would be safe in Hadjin.

CHANSOR'S CAPTAIN SUSPENDED FOR WRECK

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Announcement that Capt. A. A. Sawyer, master of the Associated Oil Company's tanker J. A. Chanslor, wrecked off Cape Blanco, Or., December 13 last, with the loss of thirty-eight lives, has been suspended for two years as a result of a wreck, was made by the inspector of hulls and boilers here today. Capt. Sawyer lives in San Francisco. The inspector's office found that Capt. Sawyer was "guilty of failure to properly navigate his vessel."

Capt. Sawyer denied the charge, saying that he took all the precautions possible.

The Chanslor was en route to San Francisco from Portland, where she foundered in a heavy sea.

Drop Your Tobacco Money Into His Little Bank If You Love Your Boy

If you would put into your boy's savings bank every day the money spent for tobacco you would make a daily contribution to his success and happiness and to your own good health, possibly adding years to your life. Do you spend ten cents a day, or twenty-five or fifty for tobacco? Think of what your boy would have when twenty-one! For you know that tobacco is an expensive habit and that the expense is not its worst feature. It undermines the great injury inflicted by the use of these. Tobacco works with an unseen hand, steadily, gradually, but surely and disastrously. At twenty you may use it and notice no ill effects, only to realize at forty that you have hardening of the arteries, indigestion, and that you are prematurely old. Save your tobacco money for your boy and when he reaches twenty-one he will have two priceless possessions: a good start in life and a father young enough to be his chum. Some tobacco users who love the lure of self-indulgence try to make themselves believe tobacco is not injurious, yet every user almost without exception at some time realize he is using too much. How is it in your own case? Almost any doctor will tell you that too much tobacco is injurious to anyone and Dr. Hirschfeld says excessive use of tobacco after forty-five is suicidal.

To quit tobacco through sheer will-power causes great suffering because of the awful craving for the nicotine to which your system is accustomed, but to quit it through Nicotol costs little or no effort. Nicotol kills the craving for tobacco, tones up the nervous system and keeps you feeling fine and fit. It makes the tobacco habit quit easy to do. Anybody can. But the thoughtful man with courage and determination who is honest with himself, having quit the habit, will leave off tobacco entirely. You can get Nicotol of any up-to-date druggist and it is sold under an absolute guarantee of success or the purchase price will be refunded.

NOTE: Ten years ago, seventy cigarettes per person cost the demand in this country; last year the consumption had increased to over four hundred cigarettes per person, or nearly sixfold, to say nothing of other forms of tobacco consumption. Statistics show that heart disease is most prevalent in countries where tobacco consumption is greatest and that it increases with the increased use of tobacco. Heart trouble was second in a list of causes for rejection in our army. How much are you over-faring your heart by the use of tobacco? If you can't answer, let Nicotol help you quit before your heart gives up the fight.

DURESS PIVOTAL IN MUNRO CASE
Put Off Decision to Friday
Pending Legal Study.

Question of "Clean Hands" is Also Vital in Case.

Frightened Into Returning Property, Says Girl.

The decision in the suit of Miss Clara Eunice Barker to recover property valued at $27,600 given to her by Charles W. S. Munro, wealthy zinc manufacturer of Trenton, N. J., depends upon a legal question. To determine this question, Judge Wood yesterday continued the case until Friday afternoon for authorities from Attorneys Hanna and Morton for Miss Barker, and Attorneys Clarke and Richardson for Mr. Munro.

Mr. Munro and Miss Barker are said to have lived together in a bungalow in Glendale. In a letter he wrote her from the East, he said he gave her the property. After their separation, she deeded the property back to Mr. Munro and he gave her Liberty Bonds valued at $4500, the evidence shows. If Miss Barker re- lites on the alleged wrongful rela- tions between herself and Mr. Munro, the judge stated he did not see how she could recover, for a court in equity bars its doors for equitable relief when the parties do not come into court with clean hands.

Miss Barker said she gave up the property under duress. She claimed she was under the control of Mr. Munro, the judge stated he did not see but if it is found that she volun- tarily returned the property with- out fear, then she is not entitled to it, statements in court indicate.

Former Judge Clarke, in summing up his argument, said:
"If it is equity and just to restore to this plaintiff the Glendale home as the result of her shame, and if we must bow to and respect such a decree as equitable and just, and she may regain herself and family in this home, then may the shades of Grace Munro, like Banquo's ghost, sweep through its walls, and may the cries of innocent children be heard."

Intestinal Indigestion!
A Form of Dyspepsia Usually Resulting from the Inability to Digest Starchy Food.

A great many people are severely bothered with intestinal indigestion due to the fact that the starchy foods, such as potatoes, rice, white bread, etc., are digested in the small intestine and not in the stomach as is generally supposed.

To relieve this condition Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are well supplied with an intestinal digestant so that instead of practicing severe diet you may eat these essential, nourishing foods without distress.

In the small intestine the pancre- atic juice acts upon the starches and ordinarily, in a state of health, pos- sesses the power of converting them into grape sugar and dextrine. Starch must be so transformed be- fore it can be of use to the body and economy. Remaining as unchanged starch, it either passes through the alimentary canal, and proves a use- less burden to the system, because it resists absorption, or it causes in- testinal indigestion, the food prod- ucts becoming acid through putre- faction, which often sets up a catarrhal inflammation of the inte- stine, resulting in diarrhoea.

In a complaint of this character many persons use paregoric, bismuth and tannin to relieve the diarrhoea, all powerful astringents, and they stop the trouble suddenly, "locking up" the morbid secretions, throwing the toxic intestinal poison back on the system, and often caus- ing auto-intoxication.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS contain among other powerful digestives a substance called pan- creatin, which thoroughly digests starchy foods in the small intestine, thus preventing intestinal indigestion.

These tablets also contain calcium carbonate, which is a mild though effective sub-astringent, and which by its antiseptic properties re- moves the intestinal poisons that are always present in intestinal indigestion and diarrhoea.

Not only are the starches digested by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, but through the action of other ingredients they relieve stom- ach indigestion and dyspepsia. Buy a package from your druggist today for 50 cents and note the sense of relief that follows in short order.

DEAN MURDER TRIAL ON.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, March 16.—Long before 10 o'clock this morning the courtroom and adjoining corridors of Judge T. T. Norton's court were crowded with spectators who came to attend the trial of Mrs. Myrtle Dean, accused of the murder of her husband, Fred Dean, former deputy assessor of San Luis Obispo county.

Mrs. Dean sat most of the day with the matron, Mrs. Mattie Fry, heavily veiled. The wounds in her throat caused by her attempt at suicide on the day of her husband's funeral were still swathed in bandages.

Most of the day was taken up with skirmishes between Dist. Atty. M. P. Vanvorner and counsel for Mrs. Dean, Senator E. Campbell, and C. W. Greene. Depositions taken in Texas to show that Mrs. Dean's mother and uncle had both been insane and had both died in insane asylums in that state, were the basis of the skirmishes. Mrs. Dean's counsel maintained that the depositions did not comply with the California statutes and asked to have the case continued and an- other commission appointed to re- take the depositions. The motion was denied.

Four jurors were accepted, Peter Hansen, Mrs. Helen Heinrich, Wil- liam M. Soper and Joseph Berke- meyer, out of ten examined.

CHECK WOOD DEALERS' EXCHANGE OF REPORTS.

FEDERAL JUDGE RESTRAINS MORE THAN THREE HUN- DRED MANUFACTURERS.

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) March 16.—The more than 300 members of the American Hardwood Manufacturers' Association were restrained from further exchange and distribution of stock and sales statements and certain other trade reports by an injunction plan here today by Federal Judge McCall.

The injunction will remain in force pending final hearings of the government complaint against the "open competition plan" which was filed in Federal court here Febru- ary 14. The government, in its bill of complaint, charged that distribu- tion of certain trade statements and reports through the central office of the so-called plan here constituted a conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The defense denied in detail the government's allegations. The plan was vigorously defended as wholly within the law.

"It is difficult, if not possible, on this record," Judge McCall said, "to escape the conclusion that the pur- pose and intention of the plan was to suppress competition among its members and create and perpetuate a monopoly in the hardwood-lumber manufacturing business wherein the production of hardwood lumber was to be kept low enough to maintain prices on an artificial scale, but not so low as to drive prices to such heights under the stimulating influ- ence produced by the propaganda to 'build now' that consumers would be induced to use substitutes."

FIFTY WOMEN DUPED; HAD THE CINEMA BUG.

CHICAGO, March 16.—Jerome Hersenson, aged 21, attired in a trick suit of gray-green, a sordid scarf and toothpick shoes, sat in Judge Max Pam's court today and smiled disadvisedly at a half-hun- dred women and girls who had given him their money.

He was charged with having used his money to make a celebrated movie star of them. One woman, "Marilyn," her furniture was sold on credit to him, and she was to become rich and famous by being a stockholder in the Shad- land Film Company.

It is said Hersenson picked up $1600 from the embryo Pickfords and now they want him to make good or refund their money. Today in court two of them left their trademarks on his face when he said they were jealous because he would not make love to them.

Judge Pam paroled him with the understanding that he is to return the money to the women, failing which he will conduct his business from a cell in the jail. The judge also read the riot act to the women. He said they deserved what they had received—that they were a lot of foolish creatures, crazy about the stage and willing to fall for any absurd scheme that was promised to make actresses of them.

LENGTHEN LIFE BY ENTHUSIASM.

Tremendous Interest in Things Makes the Blood Circulate Better.

CHICAGO, March 16.—Those of you who desire to live a hundred years—listen. Enthusiasm is one of the secrets of longevity treasured by members of the Hundred Year Club. Mrs. D. Harry Hammer, one of the mem- bers, disclosed this secret in an address at the eightieth birthday of another member.

"There is positively no need of giving in to Father Time," she said. "He is a cheat. The way to meet him is to use his own weapons. Just cheat him by refusing to fall into his trap."

"One of the things that will do more than anything else to defeat time and en- able one to live a hundred years or longer is enthusiasm. One should keep his or her intellects keenly alert, and should always engage in some- thing that is of tremendous interest."

"Enthusiasm makes the blood flow faster; it keeps the mind wide awake and makes one forget the fies and al- iments, which, if given way to, will break one down in short time."

"The enthusiastic persons will be young at ninety, while the person lacking in enthusiasm will be old at twenty."

THIRTY-SIXES NO LONGER IN STYLE.

Robbins, the Rubber Lady, is Class Today, Says Gertie
the Model.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CHICAGO, March 16.—Farwell to the perfect thirty-sixes. Fashion designers have put the delectable creatures out of the running, at least for this season, and there is much lamentation among the sprightly models who formerly swept majestically up and down in front of the buyers.

"There ain't no such a thing as a feminine form today," wailed Gertie, one of the models. "A lady might as well be a barrel of sauerkraut as a perfect thirty-six. A dainty built dame can't show the styles no more. What they need for a model is a circus freak—Rubina, the rubber lady—or something like that. She's gotta have a spaghetti spine, double joints and accordion-pleated muscles to fit into more than one gown a year."

Gertie is right. There are two ways to follow the fashions this year. One is to follow them all the way. In the morning milady will need a slim, wasp waist; in the afternoon she will require a few curves, and in the evening she will have to be as straight as a ramrod. As for the gowns displayed at the opening of the fashion art league today, one must be a mathematician to guess whether the forms they encase are spheres, hemispheres, parabolas or comet-like wisps of atmosphere.

There is every fashion conceivable to fit every individuality, conceivable, and this is the secret of the second method, which is not to follow the fashions at all. Any thing is fashionable. A ham out from last year's dress will give the remnant the fashionable unfinished effect. A few patches cut from foulard and sewed over the worn spots in last year's serge will give the fashionable applied effect.

A thousand dressmakers and designers are attending the convention held here this week.

John Cavanaugh, Des Moines banker, was made permanent receiver for the Associated Packing Company at a hearing yesterday. The company, a $5,000,000 stock selling concern, pleaded for a chance to reorganize, but the court held otherwise. Atty.-Gen. Harner reiterated his charges of fraud.

KANSAS CITY, March 16.—The time limit for filing State income-tax returns has been extended to include the remainder of this week. Shortage of blanks Saturday made it impracticable to close the lists.

Robert S. Stone, County Assessor, ordered the time extended.

Twelve hours was set aside today for the eligible voters of Kansas City to correct any possible errors and make certain their names are included in the registration books. Booths were open in each of the 243 precincts from 8 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock at night.

Directors of the Kansas City Livestock Exchange have received no answer to a letter asking that Gardner to stop wide-open gambling in the stockyards district.

The ex-vice generalities, shifting the blame for vice conditions to the taxpayers for not paying larger salaries to the police, included in the Governor's open letter last week, are not considered by the directors as an answer.

DENVER, March 16.—Mrs. Joseph Stevens, 27, wife of a wealthy Louisville farmer, was murdered, according to reports at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Blere, near Louisville.

Mrs. Stevens was leaning against a table when the murderer fired a bullet through her head into her back. She died ten minutes later. Stevens and her wife separated by mutual agreement last September. He was arrested and will be charged with the crime.

LE BACK TO EARTH.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, March 16.—In a personal appeal to the heads of 20,000 financial institutions, Secretary Houston today sought their co-operation in the treasury savings movement.

Prosperity and welfare of the nation, he said, were dependent on thrift, economy and saving. Bank officials were asked to give wholehearted support to distribution of thrifty and savings stamps and certificates as "an effective and patriotic service."

Secretary Houston said the movement was "a firm and permanent basis."

"Aside from the fact that the proceeds from the sales of securities will assist in serving the cash requirements of the treasury," he continued, "the movement is of the very essence of fundamental economics, affording a tangible means of combatting high prices and extravagance and the ills that follow in their train."

"Even considerations of self-interest should impel bank and institutions to assume their acknowledged and rightful leadership with sufficient vigor and force to arouse the American people."

GEDDES SOUNDS PLAIN WARNING

Anglo-American Teamwork Necessary for Future.
English-Speaking Races Must Work in Harmony.

Denounces Publications that Stir up Strife.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, March 15.—Sir Auckland Geddes, Ambassador to the United States, attacked newspapers which stir up Anglo-American irritation at a dinner given in his honor last night.

"It is an essential condition of the working of the magic of peace, so necessary to have civilization," he said, "that the two great English-speaking communities should sail forward in mutual respect and understanding to the uncharted seas of the future."

"To labor to secure that mutual respect and understanding is a man's work, and I am not insensible of the high privilege which he has been given a chance of so serving this day and generation."

Expressing the wish that "some word might be spoken here which would hasten development of an understanding of the problems and difficulties of Great Britain and America by Great Britain, the Ambassador said:

"It does not help either respect or understanding to cry 'Peace, peace,' where there is no peace, nor love and trust. If love be cold and trust worn thin, I do hope and believe that this is not the case with any considerable section of either of the great English-speaking communities."

"But it would be criminal madness not to recognize that there are pamphlets printed and papers published which disseminate love and conceal trust so thoroughly that one is forced to believe there is neither love to dissemble nor trust to conceal in the minds of the workers."

"There is nothing I regret more than to read in some American papers an article accusing this country of quite impossible villainy, unless it be to read in some British paper the article reversed."

CRITICISM IS CHEAP.
"It is so fatally easy to criticize, particularly at a time like this when human thought is boiling."

"Let us remember that it is quite impossible for two peoples to see every question from the same angle. But let us stick fast to, let us keep a firm hold upon the big thing history has to teach us, that somehow both peoples have driven the furrow straight and true and most astonishingly parallel in their efforts to cultivate civilization."

"There is no evidence that I know to suggest that either is now contemplating a departure from its traditional husbandry."

OPENS AERIAL GUNNERY SCHOOL AT ROCKWELL.

REAM FIELD RETAINED AS SUB-PLYING BASE; HANGARS TO BE MOVED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
SAN DIEGO, March 15.—Maj. Roy Kirtland, commandant of Rockwell Field, announced today that an advanced aerial gunnery school will be maintained at the field in addition to the district supply and maintenance repair base to be kept there. Ream Field, a few miles away, will be retained as a subplying base. Commander Kirtland said that 300,000 square feet of floor space will be needed at Rockwell Field to house aeronautical stores and supplies to be moved here from the storage depot at Los Angeles. To house all these parts and supplies Maj. Kirtland is planning to return to Rockwell Field several of the steel aviation hangars now at Ream Field.

Kirtland said that the repair depot at Rockwell Field will be in command of Maj. F. R. Knight, now on his way here from Montgomery, Ala. The Ninth Aero Squadron will be believed of duty at Rockwell Field early next week and after a month of intensive training will leave for Mather Field, Sacramento, to begin aerial forestry patrol work.

Flight A of the Ninety-first Aero Squadron will leave Ream Field for Purvair Field, El Centro, tomorrow morning, relieving Flight A of the Ninth Squadron. Six officers and forty-five men comprise the unit.

FLOUR FOR EUROPE ON CREDIT BILL BY HOUSE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, March 15.—Food relief for Europe was assured today when the House passed overwhelmingly a bill permitting the U. S. Grain Corporation to sell 5,000,000 barrels of soft wheat flour on long-term credits to Poland, Austria and Armenia.

The vote on the bill was 283 to 12. Those opposing were all Democrats, but one. The Democrats included Buchanan, Garner and Rayburn, Texas.

Chairman Fordney of the Ways and Means Committee urged prompt action, declared there was need of immediate relief and that according to officers of the Grain Corporation, there was no demand in this country for the flour, which was apt to spoil unless sold before hot weather.

RIO JANEIRO, March 15.—The Brazilian government has conceded a credit of $25,000,000 to Italy for the purchase in Brazil of various food products, including frozen beef, cereals, lard, coffee, sugar, cotton and rubber.

FEDERAL JUDGE JAILS HEARST CITY EDITOR.

REFUSAL TO ANSWER GRAND JURY QUESTIONS PUTS CHICAGO MAN IN GAOL.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE)
CHICAGO, March 15.—Hector E. Elwell, city editor of the Chicago Evening American, was at liberty today under a stay from a jail sentence and a fine of $500 imposed by Federal Judge Carpenter for refusing to answer questions put to him by a Federal grand jury.

Judge Carpenter entered an order yesterday finding Elwell guilty of contempt of court and sentenced him to be confined in the County Jail until willing to answer the questions of the jurors.

The proceedings before the grand jury were revealed when the foreman went before the court with a written statement declaring Elwell had refused to disclose the source of a news story concerning grand jury action against "Dr." William H. Sage, head of the local bureau charged with the enforcement of the Anti-Narcotic Act, since indicted for accepting bribes.

"We consider the point involved so important to newspapers in general that we intend to carry this case to the highest court," Elwell's attorney declared.

Amnesia Victim Identified.
(BY A. P. DAY WIRE)

FISHERMAN'S ROMANCE SHATTERED BY COURT.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The budding romance of Charles Elbert, reputed to be a wealthy fish dealer, was frost-bitten in Magistrate Sweetser's court today, after Miss Ethel Cosens, blonde and comely, recited the persistence with which she had been wooed through the medium of an unromantic dumb waiter.

Every morning, with unbroken regularity, she told the court, her unwelcome suitor took advantage of lulls in the visits of the lovelorn and milkman to shower her with love missives of no mean warmth.

Elbert blushingly admitted he was madly in love with the young woman from the first moment he saw her, and appeared amazed when the magistrate gave orders to summon an ambulance to take him to the Bellevue Hospital observation ward. Elbert protested vehemently that he was not insane, but was only in love. "Love is insanity," the court ruled.

RAILROAD TO RELY ON PROSPERITY OF SOUTH.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
ATLANTA, March 15.—Believing that the remarkable prosperity of the South will be continued indefinitely, the Southern Railway system will rely on its own earnings instead of accepting the "standard return" of 5 1/2 per cent, with an extra one-half of one per cent for improvements, provided in the transportation act.

This declaration was made tonight after the return of President Fairfax Harrison from a trip over the system.

Los Angeles, Calif.—"I will gladly tell of the Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gave me. I was sick of the stomach, liver, etc., and La Grippe with all its ailments. ## GET MILLION AS BARRIER FALLS.

Continuous Hustle of Currency on Last Income Tax Payment Day.

The barrier fell in the payment of income tax Monday night with the closing of Collector Carter at 8 o'clock. The penalty was imposed on all comers yesterday.

Mail posted that night up to yesterday morning and containing checks for the payment of the tax, will be duly credited, but otherwise the delinquents who have failed to take advantage of the repeated warnings given by Collector Carter through the press must settle with the authorities at Washington.

The last day's rush was phenomenal, but there are many returns yet to be made in the district. The collector hopes that when the final count is made and the last remittance has been received the delinquents will be few.

The receipts Monday were close to $1,000,000. The local collections made total about $7,000,000, which is $2,000,000 less than last year. The total collections to be made throughout the local internal revenue district are in the neighborhood of $50,000,000.

which will serve both these cities and the State generally.

The morning session yesterday was opened by W. A. McVay of the State advisory board, and following invocation by Brigadier Clarence Boyd, Col. A. T. Brewer spoke of the work of the Salvation Army in France, saying that the army had returned from the battlefields without a single stain upon its banner.

Other addresses were made by Maj. Louise Coggeshall of Los Angeles, who spoke on the "Los Angeles Rescue and Maternity Homes," and by Brig. Fletcher Agnew of Chicago, who spoke on "The General Work of the Salvation Army." Brig. Agnew advocated the building in Los Angeles of an army training school for Salvation Army officers, so that those who wish to prepare themselves for service in the organization will not be compelled to go to Chicago. He also spoke of the army's detective agency, which, in the past, has succeeded in locating thousands of missing men, women and children.

War Romance Wins Bacteriologist.

Mrs. Albert Chesley, Formerly Dr. Placida Gardner. At the time this picture was taken she was city bacteriologist.

DR. GARDNER WEDS ABROAD

A war romance that began in the "danger zone" of France, close to the front lines, was revealed yesterday by a cablegram from Warsaw, Poland, which briefly stated Dr. Placida Gardner, of this city, was recently married there to Lieut.-Col. Albert Chesley of Minneapolis.

Dr. Gardner was formerly head of the city's department of bacteriology. In April, 1918, she and her sister, Miss Margaret Gardner, announced their intention to give up their city positions and enter the war service. Miss Margaret Gardner was then a prominent woman lawyer and a deputy city prosecutor. They are listed in the Stanford Woman's Unit for Red Cross Work and arrived in France in July, 1918.

The sisters were assigned to a traveling laboratory, which followed closely in the wake of the advancing American armies. Col. Chesley, a Minneapolis physician, was a member of the laboratory staff. After the signing of the armistice, the laboratory was sent to Warsaw and Col. Chesley was appointed head of the Red Cross Commission in Poland. He and Dr. Gardner were married last February 12, in the little English church at Warsaw. Miss Margaret Gardner is with the bridal couple.

Miss Margaret and Dr. Placida Gardner are the daughters of Mrs. E. H. Gardner of 1559 Vestal avenue. Miss Margaret Gardner, prior to her departure for France, was mentioned as a candidate for police judge; it was her plan to run for the office on a woman's ticket. In the office of the City Prosecutor she was in full charge of all trials of women by juries. Dr. Gardner, two years ago, filled an important position at Los Fells Hospital, and it was her duty in the Health Department to superintend the analysis of blood taken from men and women arrested and arraigned in the police courts. She has also been in charge of bacteriological examinations for the army and navy at Fort MacArthur and at the Naval Training Station at San Pedro.

Within the ensuing two weeks Assistant City Attorney Jess Stephens will present to the City Council a general plan for revision of the zoning system for the city, following the plan adopted in New York City, which has residence, business and unrestricted districts.

The subject came before the City Council when Paul W. Hoffman, 1925 Western avenue, appeared before it to ask for legislation that would prevent the erection of a large garage on the lot adjoining an apartment he is just completing. He declared that he had offered to pay the owner of the lot for the work already done and to purchase the property, but that the owner had raised his price to $10,000 for the lot. Mr. Hoffman's plea was referred to the Welfare Committee.

Mr. Stephens said that he has been making a study of the whole situation, and is convinced that a new zoning system should be adopted and that the present zoning of the city could be followed to advantage here. I have telegraphed to the corporation counsel for information as to whether the provisions have been sustained in the courts, and expect a reply shortly. I think we can well afford to formulate legislation on this line and take a chance on sustaining it in the local courts. It is certainly time to revise our methods, to throw more rigid restrictions about the residential districts, so as to protect them, and at the same time encourage the full development of the industrial sections.

Mr. Stephens explained that his plan would provide that industries now located in residential districts should have a reasonable limit within which to move to new locations. ADMITS EQUIPMENT THEFT. W. E. Clute, with a record of twenty months in the naval service, pleaded guilty yesterday to stealing government condemned property at San Diego, before U. S. District Judge Trippett, and will be sentenced Friday. Clute took the stuff with him to Seattle, after his discharge from the service, and made no attempt to conceal any of it. It is stated that it was old, worn-out equipment that had been virtually thrown away by the government. His Seattle employers are interested in his behalf.

MAKES NEW RECORD FOR AMUSEMENT RUN.

STAR OF WINCHELL SMITH
PLAY CELEBRATES 55TH TIME IN PART.

NEW YORK, March 16.—An event of signal significance in American theatrical history will be celebrated by John Golden at the Gaiety Theater, New York, tonight, March 17, when his star, Frank Bacon, will celebrate his six hundred and fifty-eighth consecutive performance of "Lightnin'" at this theater, thus establishing a record for number of performances, number of people who have witnessed the consecutive performances of a dramatic presentation, and the amount of receipts accruing therefrom.

The premiere of this play occurred at the National Theater, Washington, D. C. on January 23, 1918, in the presence of President Wilson and family, members of his Cabinet and many distinguished personages.

On August 26, 1918, the New York engagement was inaugurated at the Gaiety Theater, where it has been playing continuously ever since, with the exception of a brief suspension from August 7, 1919, to September 8, occasioned by the actors' strike.

During the seventy-eighth week's stay on Broadway 120,648 persons have purchased tickets of admission, and over $1,000,000 has been expended in the purchase thereof.

During the entire life of "Lightnin'" only two changes have been made in the cast—Harry Davenport, who was the original Rodney Harper, was transferred to enact Dr. Gaunt in "Three Wise Fools," and Ralph Morgan, who played John Marvin, resigned. Aside from these two changes the cast remains exactly as originally played.

Many sensational incidents have occurred during the run, but the most spectacular was the visit of Gen. John J. Pershing, who honored John Golden by witnessing a performance of "Lightnin'" the first evening he spent on American soil upon his return from overseas.

Other record runs are as follows: "A Trip to Chinatown" ran consecutively 657 times; "Pag O' My Heart," 604; "Adonia," 603; "The Music Master," with three interruptions, 540; "The Boomerang," 522; "Hazel Kyrle," 486; "The Black Crook," 475; "Turn to the Right," 452; "The Fortune Hunter," with one interruption, 444; "The Old Homestead" at the Academy of Music, 437.

Several of the more recent successes have given a greater number of performances than the two above mentioned, but a record of 100 presentations in the early 80's was considered a wonderful achievement at that time.

Of the above record-breaking successes, Winchell Smith is the author of four of the first ten tabulated; co-author of "Lightnin'" co-author of "The Boomerang," author of "Turn to the Right" and "The Fortune Hunter."

ON LIQUOR CHARGE. Earl R. Gardner, who was convicted of violation of the Harrison narcotic law, was given sixty days in the County Jail and a fine of $100 by U. S. District Judge Trippett yesterday. Gardner is a tubercular patient, and has a wife and two children dependent on him for support.

SOCIAL RIVALRY CAUSES SPLIT?

Wife's Discontent Blamed by Crippen for Home Smash.

She Shows He Transferred
Love to Another.

Court Advises Make-up; Says
Beware "Meal Ticket."

The philosophy of Mrs. Ella E. Crippen, as indicated in Judge Cralley's court yesterday, was "Let things work themselves out."

The philosophy of Paul E. Crippen, real estate expert, was: "If a wife interferes with a man's business, his health or his happiness, he is a fool not to leave her."

Mrs. Crippen sued for separate maintenance. At the conclusion of the unhappy story, the court divided the community property and awarded Mrs. Crippen $135 a month alimony.

She testified that before the dark days came their life was ideal. They had money and were very happy. Then Mr. Crippen began to stay away from home.

RIVAL CREEPS IN.

"I made up my mind to let things work themselves out," she said. She stated she thought her heart would break when she discovered some one else creeping into the affections of her husband.

"One evening he came home and said he was through. I begged him to stay, but he would not. I packed him good-bye at the door. I wished him good luck."

Much of the time Mrs. Crippen was in tears. Mr. Crippen stated that when he lost his money, his wife would not adjust herself to changed conditions. She denied this. He said he was tired when he came home late at night, and did not want to hear his wife talk of bridge clubs and social affairs. He declared she lived beyond her means and made mistakes in choosing her friends. Some of them had husbands who had more money than he had.

ON LIQUOR CHARGE. Earl R. Gardner, who was convicted of violation of the Harrison narcotic law, was given sixty days in the County Jail and a fine of $100 by U. S. District Judge Trippett yesterday. Gardner is a tubercular patient, and has a wife and two children dependent on him for support.

"Her women friends did not have any children," he said. "She would come home and tell me that another woman's husband had just bought her a new fur coat. She wanted one, and I could not afford it. This made her discontented. I did not find much comfort in taking her out."

TURNED TO "OTHER." "You found comfort in this other woman then?" asked Attorney R. J. Culver.

Mr. Crippen replied this woman "kind of entertained him; she made the evening pleasant." Judge Cralley said he thought Mr. Crippen foolish for leaving his wife, and that he was taking a great chance in joining with another woman.

"About the only thing a woman takes a man of his age for is for a meal ticket," said the court. "She would not love him. My advice to you two is to get the person out of your nature and try to figure out a way to live happily together."

ousting of Traffic MANAGER IN DOUBT.

The Harbor Commission sent to the City Council yesterday a request that it "withhold action for the present" on that section of the ordinance pertaining to readjustment of salaries and positions in the harbor department, which eliminates the position of traffic manager. At the same session of the Council, protests were received from the Rotary Club and the Optimist Club against the elimination of the traffic bureau and traffic manager. Similar protests have been received from various business and civic organizations.

WILL PRESS PLAN TO WIDEN SIXTH STREET.

Acting City Engineer Stewart was instructed by the City Council yesterday to make and deliver to the Board of Public Works a diagram of the proposed widening of Sixth street, from Olive to Figueroa streets, and a map showing the property within the assessment district.

This action was taken following a report from the City Attorney to the effect that the city has won an interlocutory judgment against Leslie J. Atterbury in connection with this proposed improvement, and advising that the proceedings for the street improvement can now proceed.

OUT OF SIBERIA BY APRIL FIRST.

All American Troops Coming Home, Says Commander.

Now Provision for Army Reorganization Measure.

Soldier Relief Legislation Waits Legion Action.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, March 12.—All United States troops in Siberia, including the headquarters of the expeditionary force, will be out by April 1, Gen. Graves reported today to the War Department. There were 199 officers and 1845 enlisted men still at Vladivostok March 10. Army enlistment and re-enlistment would be for one or three years at the option of the soldier under a provision of the army reorganization bill adopted today by the House. A bonus equal to three months' pay would be paid to men enlisting for three years.

An attempt by Representative Caldwell, Democrat, New York, to get a vote on compulsory universal military training met a preliminary defeat. His amendment proposing military training of all youths of 18 years, beginning with July, 1935, was ruled out of order.

Representative Harrison, Democrat, Virginia, sought to have the House adopt an amendment providing for six months' training of 18-year-old youths who volunteered for training. This also was ruled out. Consideration of soldier relief legislation will be postponed until after the Executive Committee of the American Legion meets here March 23 to adopt some workable plan for adjusted compensation, chairman Fordney of the House War and Means Committee announced today.

GOMPERS PRAISES LEGION.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.—Personal endorsement of the American Legion by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, is contained in a letter from Mr. Gompers to F. B. Wilkin, secretary of the Union Labor Council of Needles, Cal., according to an article printed recently in the Needles Nugget, a copy of which has been received here.

The letter, it is stated, was written in answer to a question from Mr. Wilkin as to the attitude of Mr. Gompers and the American Federation of Labor toward the Legion.

Mr. Gompers' letter is quoted as follows: "The American Federation of Labor has not made any declaration regarding the American Legion, but speaking for myself, I cannot see any reason why ex-service men, whether members of organized labor or not members of organized labor, should not join the American Legion."

"When I was in New York City recently, Mr. Franklin D'Olier, national commander of the American Legion, asked for a conference with me which I, of course, readily granted, at which we discussed general subject matter of the Legion. He very greatly deprecated that acts and declarations of a few men, members of the Legion, speaking for themselves and without authority to speak for the Legion, should be accepted or credited with representing the American Legion and that for which it stands, any more than the

SAVE PAPERS AND AID ARMY.

Unique Campaign is Launched by "Salvationists."

Can Aid Worthy Enterprise and Also His H.C.L.

Declining Supply Must be Conserved, Says Boyd.

SAVE YOUR OLD NEWSPAPERS.

Save your old newspapers. When fifty or more copies have accumulated notify the Salvation Army Men's Industrial Home, which will be glad to call for them, or send them direct to the home, 127 Wilmington street. The telephone is Main 2099.

"Help combat the paper shortage and at the same time give aid to the Salvation Army" is the slogan in a paper-saving campaign which is vigorously promoted for the benefit of the Men's Industrial Home.

Los Angeles has been backward in realizing the gravity of the paper situation, say Salvation Army officials. Many great industries using paper in one form or another are threatened with disaster, and it has been predicted that low-priced commodities requiring paper boxes for their distribution will disappear from the market or else be sold at sharp advances in price.

As the Men's Industrial Home, a branch of the Salvation Army, has been supporting itself by collecting and selling old newspapers, the suggestion is made that by extending this work, both the paper situation and the charitable organization will derive much good.

PAPER DOES IT ALL. "Our industrial home is maintained solely by the sale of old newspapers," said Brigadier Boyd, local divisional officer, yesterday. "If the public could take a look at the men whom we help, not a word would need to be said. We employ the crippled and unfortunates who are not strong enough to do ordinary labor. They gather, sort, fold and bale the old papers. We feed them, give them shelter, and when they are able to do a real day's work, we find employment for them."

"Our system is better than straight gifts of charity. We teach the men to be diligent and thrifty. They come to us wrecks and downcasts, discouraged with the world, and we send them away clean, self-respecting and competent to earn a living."

The following method of handling the campaign has been worked out: Every family is asked to save old papers until fifty or more copies have accumulated. The Salvation Army is then to be notified and the papers will be sent for.

A WORD OF CAUTION. "I want to make myself clear on one point," said Brigadier Boyd. "I don't presume to place the Salvation Army as the chief motive in this conservation campaign. I realize that first of all paper must be saved for its own sake. With this in mind I caution everybody to be as economical in the use of paper as possible. Under no circumstances do we want people to buy newspapers wastefully just to give them to us. Far from it. Let everybody use all kinds of paper sparingly, even if it is only an envelope. Don't complain if the grocer asks you to carry a box without its being wrapped up. Paper must be saved, saved, saved. But when all the economizing has been done, the Salvation Army will thankfully receive the old accumulations."

"OTHER WOMAN" BLUE, WRITES; THEN DECREE.

WIFE GETS MOTOR CAR, RINGS, DIAMONDS AND ALIMONY IN SETTLEMENT.

Mrs. Mildred Robbins was granted a decree of divorce from Philip Robbins on the ground of cruelty, by Judge Crall yesterday. A letter said to have been written by Lois Moore to a girl friend was an exhibit in the case, introduced in evidence by Attorney Griffith Jones. She wrote that she was heartbroken and lonely; she could not eat or sleep. "What I'd give to be looking for you and Phil to come to my room."

Another letter alleged to have been written to the defendant was addressed, "Dear Philip." It said: "This rain makes me so dog-gone blue I'd be almost willing to go to Los Angeles and face Mildred to get out of this gloomy place. But I guess you are having such a good time stepping out with Lou (now that you are free) that you have forgotten all about the poor little co-respondent."

A property settlement was stated to have been made out of court. Mrs. Robbins receiving a diamond platinum lavalliere, a Tiffany diamond ring, another diamond ring and an automobile, the total value of the articles being $5390.

The court awarded Mrs. Robbins $40 a month alimony. Mr. Robbins, who is a produce merchant, did not contest the case.

Local Christian Scientists not Allowed to Comment on Dispute in Print.

The publication by The Times yesterday of a dispatch stating that the present internal dissension of the Christian Science Mother Church is partially due to the action of Los Angeles Scientists in cancelling their subscriptions to the church publications, brought out the fact that an injunction now in force forbids local officials and members of the church to express for publication their opinions of the controversy until the case is decided.

This injunction was directed at the board of directors, their agents and the committees on publication. Former State Senator William E. Brown is a member of the Committee on Publication, and is the local publicity source of the church.

We have just received a large shipment of pretty articles, stamped for embroidery, to delight the heart of every woman. She need not be a skilled needlewoman in order to enjoy making these things. Luncheon Sets —show an ever increasing variety of ideas in shapes, colors and materials used. Linen and crash are the two most favored fabrics, but a new idea—extremely popular, not so much for its novelty, as for its durability—is unbleached muslin. An ideal set for the summer bungalow, because it is both effective and practical.

During its session in San Diego yesterday, the Full Senate committee which is investigating education in Mexico, received a letter from the attending cardinal, a prominent Mexican business man with connections to present the committee from the sessions here in order to conduct investigation into the Japanese question. The committee accepted the charge as manifestly true and further emphasized its attitude in the matter by sending a cable to Los Angeles for additional sessions, beginning today. The members left the southern city this morning to make their headquarters at the Van Nuys. Where sessions will be has not been decided. After two days of sessions in Los Angeles and then on to San Pasco and thence back to Washington.

It was told in The Times several days ago that the Los Angeles session resulted in the members of the committee leaving Los Angeles

the names of their coming here. "I don't know," he replied, "but I am sure that I am not a 'person'." said Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. "Days before the criminalists of the Chamber of Commerce, asking him to speak here, he said that he was not feeling well and that he would not come to Los Angeles. We didn't know that he was in the city until the night of the 10th, and immediately we called on him at his home, 1014 N. A. G. Road, and told him to look up the party and extend it every court."

SAN DIEGO, March 18.—No publications were held today by the A. B. Hall and the Senate finance committee that is looking for a way to handle the day's work. D. A. H. regent's council of the Order of the American Revolution year was held yesterday at the luncheon table at the City Club, with regents and members from Southern California in attendance. Mrs. Camille Cottle, whose term of regency expires in April, presided.

Next week Mrs. Cottle will leave for Washington, where the national Congress, the national convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the national convention of the United Daughters of California is unanimously in session.

The candidacy of Mrs. Cottle for a re-election to the national board as vice-president of the order has been announced. Her record of service and her influence also has given her a wide popularity in Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Iowa, Oregon, Massachusetts and Michigan.

As California is the largest state in the national society and this is the first time she has asked for a re-election, Mrs. Cottle's election is a safely forecast.

M. M. Mayberry, State regent, presided over a surprise party the first time in the history of the order. By unanimous vote he placed at Mrs. Cottle's disposal a sum of money to be placed at the expense of the order in a tablet in memory of the regent.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Allopathic Prosperity; News of Banks Stocks and Business.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank propounds by implication in its monthly review of the principal cities of the entire world. Complete information relative to leading foreign securities will be sent free upon request.

The result has been that the business interests of this community have been taxed to their utmost capacity to properly take care of the guests within its gates and the increased commercial activity caused by their presence. Real estate taken on new life. Sales have been extremely active for home buyers, of business sites, for residence sites and for manufacturing purposes.

The high price of commodities, including labor, is daily adding to the high cost of living. People frantically ask when the change will come from the present to normal conditions. The answer is a simple one, dictated by common sense: Immutability economic law, viz: when supply exceeds demand. The change cannot be brought about over night.

PRODUCE MARKET FIRM.

DESPITE DULL DEMAND.

APPLES ARE WEAKER: CABBAGE, CAULIFLOWER AND OTHER LINES ADVANCE.

Although fruits and vegetables were in demand yesterday, the undertone of the market was firm, with many of the leaders again showing a slight advance during the course of the session.

Very light receipts from the country and by rail contributed considerably to a strong market.

While arrivals of apples, peaches, pears and other fruit were heavy during the past few days, the market for local produce was firm.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE FINANCIAL AND TRADE REVIEW.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
NEW YORK, March 16.—The reported breakdown of the German revolution, causing a rally in foreign exchange, contributed chiefly to the early strength and activity of today's stock market. Much of the advance was lost, however, when some highly speculative issues reacted sharply.
There were indications in other quarters that the recent advance had created an unwieldy bear account and that bull pools were pressing their advantage to the point where further representative measures by the Federal Reserve Bank might be deemed advisable.
The money market reflected no signs of such a contingency, call loans declining from the opening rate of 3 per cent. to 1 per cent. in the final hour, while time funds were in slightly better supply.
Selling was broadened and reversible most severe toward the close, when reports from Washington indicated to the possibility of Congressional legislation imposing a retroactive tax on the privilege of issuing stock dividends.
Much of the day's unsettlement was provoked by Crucible Steel and General Motors, which duplicated their sensational movements of recent sessions. Crucible made an early moderate gain, reacted 31 points and closed at a loss of 12 1/2 points. Motors at one time gained over eight points, but ended at a slight loss, and General Motors reacted 31 points and closed at a loss of 8 points.
Other industrial, shipping and speculative issues followed the lead. In the bond market, the active but irregular finish. Sales were 1,335,000 shares.
Speculative rally was smaller in the bond market, but Liberty issues and international bonds within narrow limits. Total sales per value, according to the New York State bonds were unchanged on call.

A CHILD CAN WORK THIS OIL PROBLEM

The correct answer is reached by simple logic

Problem:

Is an investment in a single well, now drilling or to be drilled, on a single lease of limited acreage, as likely to return immediate dividends, large dividends, permanent dividends and increasing dividends as if the same amount were invested in

This explains a "Royalty" which every one should know

The chief outstanding advantages of a Royalty— as against capital stock or other oil investments—are: It is not a corporation, partnership nor private scheme, hence free from frequent abuses. It is a trust estate, administered at a trifling cost, by a bank as trustee. Its terms of trust cannot be changed, hence remain permanently fixed. It is all profit, there being no officers, rents, salaries, employees, etc., to "eat up profits." It simulates strong "speculative possibilities," while strongly safeguarding invested capital, investment in it covers all wells—hence all production—present and future. Texas Star excels other royalties now offered because: It has larger and better acreage, comprising 4889 acres in the heart of the world's most famous oil field—Ranger-Eastland, Texas. It has completed 20 wells, 20 drilling rigs and 20 rigs erected or officially guaranteed present "big production," and present "strong dividends," and assure steadily "increasing production," "larger dividends," and "increased selling profits" with each new well as it will participate in every well drilled or to be drilled on its nearly 5000 acres. The First National Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, as trustee, each month collects for all "royalty" produced and disburses the funds per Texas Star.

The next dividend of Texas Star will be paid April 15. It should not be less than 25%—a rate of 24% per year on your money.

scattered through the heart of the world's most famous oil field—Ranger-Eastland, Texas. Providing the last-named investment is certain of monthly cash dividends, beginning before 30 days, of about 2%—24% per year—and quite certain to grow larger, month by month, while those nearly 5,000 acres are being drilled for more wells, at no risk or cost to the investor money?

Pioneers Gather for Funeral of Mrs. R. F. del Valle.

Former Senator's Wife Member of Historic Family.

Gave Much Time to Preserving of State's Landmarks.

Requiem mass for Mrs. R. F. del Valle, daughter of one of the State's oldest families, was said at 9 a. m., yesterday, in quiet, old-fashioned St. Vincent's Church, while survivors of California's historic families, venerable pioneers and busy business men gathered to pay their tribute of silence and tears to the memory of a beloved woman.

Mrs. Del Valle was the wife of former State Senator R. F. del Valle, who has played a prominent part in the making of California history for the last thirty years. She died late Saturday night, at the family residence, 3508 South Figueroa street, after an illness of one month. At the hour of her death one daughter, Mrs. Allan V. Deagan, lay in an adjoining room, critically ill. Her other daughter, Mrs. Lucretia del Valle Grady, is now in Paris.

The services were simple and unostentatious, as Mrs. Del Valle had requested. But St. Vincent's Church was fairly filled with the city's notable and representative citizens, making the occasion a memorable one in the thoughts of those who have had a part in the making of California. Men who had seen the growth of Los Angeles from a hamlet to a metropolis city were there; women who had known Mrs. Del Valle since the days when Los Angeles was a frontier town were there, as were also members of hundreds of the old Spanish families.

As the funeral cortege left St. Vincent's Church, through a gently-falling rain on its way to Calvary Cemetery, these and pioneers stood in small groups beneath their umbrellas to revive memories of the days when the Del Valle family and the Caleb White family, of which Mrs. Del Valle was a descendant, and other notable families were laying the foundation of the State.

Mrs. Del Valle was the daughter of Caleb E. White, a "Forty-niner." He was a prominent agriculturist in the earlier days and one of the founders of Pomona, as well as a direct descendant of one of the families that came to California in the Mayflower. Mrs. Del Valle's mother was Rebecca A. Love, a descendant of an early Tennessee family.

Mrs. Del Valle was born in Sacramento county in 1859. She graduated from the Los Angeles High School in 1878. Her first husband was Thomas A. Caytelle, one of the founders of The Los Angeles Times. In San Francisco in 1880, she married Mr. Del Valle, son of Ignacio del Valle, who came to California in 1835. He has taken a very active part in Democratic campaigns for thirty years, has held many State offices, and is now a member of the Board of Public Service Commissioners.

Up to the time of her death, Mrs. Del Valle was very active in local women's club circles. For the last two years she was chairman of the committee on history and landmarks of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. During this time she did an effective work in general education among the club members and was endeavoring to locate and fix all the prominent landmarks of the State. She was a member of the Friday Morning Club, the Women's Catholic Club and of the University Book Club.

Mrs. Del Valle leaves two daughters and a grandchild, besides her husband. One daughter, Mrs. Grady, is now in Paris with her husband and eighteen-month-old son, Reginaldo del Valle Grady. Mrs. Grady, as Lucretia del Valle, was for some years the leading woman in the "Mission Play." The other daughter, Mrs. Duncan, is confined to her bed at the Del Valle home.

Funeral services for Mrs. Del Valle were held at 9 a. m. yesterday at St. Vincent's Church. The Rev. Father J. J. McElroy, pastor of the church, officiated. The casket was borne by John S. McGroarty, Joseph Meemer, Isidore B. Dockweiler, Frank Simpson and Henry W. O'Malley.

Resolutions of condolence on the death of Mrs. Del Valle were adopted last evening at a meeting of the Board of Service Commissioners, of which the bereaved husband is a member.

Barnes four-ring wild animal circus, which will open under acres of canvas for a four-day exhibition at Frager Park this afternoon at 1 o'clock. At 10:30 o'clock this morning a parade two miles long will leave the circus ground to traverse the city streets. Two performances will be given each day, starting at 2 p. m. and 7 p. m., the tents being thrown open an hour before the beginning of each.

The line of march of the parade will be from the circus grounds in Frager Park to Grand avenue, north on Grand to Tenth street, then to Tenth to Broadway, north on Broadway.

Hudson Tells of Fight with Browns Over Jane Smith.

Secret marking of initials of various members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Griffin, depositors in the Union Square Branch of the Hallmark Commercial Trust and Savings Bank, served yesterday to form a connecting link between the looting of the bank and the flight of Arthur and Herbert Brown, on trial in Judge Crane's court on a robbery charge. Both Mr. and Mrs. Griffin identified several $100 bonds, they said they had marked for their children.

Edward Hudson, brought here from Folsom prison to testify, said that in distributing the loot the bonds were dealt out like cards and that each got some of the Griffin bonds.

Deputy Sheriff Fox testified to finding some of these bonds on the defendants. Phillip Simons identified a package of $5 bills, $500 in all, found on Hudson, as bearing his initials.

In concluding his testimony Hudson told of a fight at Venice over Jane Smith, the girl arrested with Hudson, and of a threat by the Browns brothers to kill him. Questioned by Guy Edie, defense counsel, he admitted that he "would like to see the Browns get a stiff jolt in prison." On one occasion, when Hudson spoke in a low voice, the court said, "A man who is bold enough to rob a bank, should be able to speak up to a jury."

Upon being questioned by Deputy District Attorney Fricke, Mrs. Anna Earl, Homer Laughlin, Richard Hewitt, Schwartz, Robert London, W. T. McPhee, Howard Huntington, Thomas Ridgeway, E. P. Clark, Isaac Milbank, L. J. Selby, Lyman McPhee, Russell McDonnell Taylor, Irving J. Muma, James Woolwine, Charles Ray, Samuel Bonfatti, Curtis Williams, E. Howard, Force Parker, Frank Gilman, Walter Brem, George Seward, Herbert Langmuir, Miss Lucy Clark, Miss Clara Vickers, Miss Lucy Clark, Miss Donald Fricke, Miss Stephenson, Raymond Stephens, L. L. Mrs. Isaac Milbank is to give an affair of the same kind with Mrs. Hamlin as honor guest next Monday.
